Wheel of the Year
From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

"Wheel" redirects here. For other uses, see Wheel (disambiguation).
The Wheel of the Year is an annual cycle of seasonal festivals marking the changing of the seasons, as observed in various Neopagan religions, including Wicca, Druidry, Heathenry, and Thelema. The festivals are known as sabbats, a term first recorded in the 1940s.[1] Most Neopagans have incorporated the Wheel of the Year in the ritual practices of their religions, although the festivals are not celebrated by all Neopagans.[2] Some Neopagans have also incorporated the Wheel of the Year in the practice of their spirituality.[3]
